

POLICY ON EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY

APEAS is fully committed to providing equal opportunities for all its candidates, examiners, employees, directors and any other persons that use its services.

Furthermore, APEAS is totally opposed to all forms of unlawful, direct or indirect discrimination against its candidates, examiners, employees, directors or other persons using its services on the grounds of age, colour, culture, disability, ethnic origin, gender, marital status, nationality, place of employment, race, religion or sexual orientation. APEAS will actively endeavour to prevent discrimination on any of these grounds.

Any person wishing to raise a complaint on the basis of failure to comply with this policy should use the APEAS Complaints Procedure which can be found on the APEAS website – www.apeas.org.uk
