

Claire Cockburn (Hons) MArch RIAS RIBA (Conservation Registrant)

Claire studied Architectural Design at the University of Edinburgh where she completed both her Part I and Part II degrees, and became a fully qualified Architect in 2011. She has held RIBA Conservation Accreditation since 2012.

Living and working in Edinburgh, Claire has over 10 years' experience in architectural practice, and in 2018 she joined Smith Scott Mullan Associates. Claire's key experience has been in refurbishment and conservation projects, and she has also carried out a number of projects in the education sector. She is currently involved in a number of projects ranging from alterations within the Museum of Scotland to an extra care housing development in Dalkeith.

Claire became a member of the Board of the Architects Professional Examination Authority in Scotland (APEAS) in 2012 as a newly qualified Architect, and became the RIAS member 2 years later.